- VI. REPORTS: Reports will be brief.
 - a. Commander, Richard Claw: The current trust fund policy is being reviewed and revised to remove the 180 days served requirement. There was a final draft to the current policy that was dated 7/30/2024 with a few corrections, but the policy was never signed. Medical assistance is still currently 150.00 with one time assistance. Tim Johnson sent in his resignation letter to resign as CNVO Commander to take on another position under President Nygren. Made a few announcements regarding Women Warriors Connect Newsletter, The Wall that Heals will be in Surprise, AZ, and Native Intensive Clinical Program. Reported on Navajo Nation Veterans Administration Report and gave out the report to following comrades. Reported on election and census count and reappropriation plan. Updated on Insurance for Chapter and Veterans Organization. Reported on statement from President Nygren regarding the Veterans Act.
 - b. Vice-Commander, Wilson Honie: Welcomed those that came to the meeting and had no report regarding veterans' information. He did give information regarding CLUP-C meeting.
 - c. Liaison Officer: Delphina Tsosie: Reported on CNVO Special Meeting, January 14, 2026. Advised members that she may need to resign her position as Liaison Officer due to having to acquire employment.
 - d. Representative, Don Sage: absent
 - e. Sergeant-At-Arms, Harrison Honie: attended via Televeda
