8. Reports:
 - A) Commander: Paul Jones attended CNVO meeting in Many Farms January 30, 2026, where once again NN President or Council Delegate Carl Slater didn't show up along with other people listed. Pinon Wellness is still asking for funding as well. Timothy Johnson attended the meeting and mention there is a lot of lack of communication within the Organization. February 27, 2026 the next CNVO will be at Low Mountain. Attended Grazing Meeting and there are so many questions of your animal. For instance, if you have it sheep, does it have a black head? Which side of the ear is cut?
 - B) Vice-Commander: Harrison Begay Vice-Commander once again Thanks Vice Commander and Secretary for everything they do. "Welcome Everyone, to the meeting" A Report on December 19th, 2025 from Art Hardy, Staff Assistant Office of the Speaker. Reports the Navajo Nation Council recently passed Legislation to recognize Veterans Organization and allow them to adopt own Plan of Operation, plan own activities and advocate for Chapter Veterans. According to "Financial Assistance Program Policies" hardship not to exceed $800 limited 2x per fiscal year. An email from VSO Paula Begay "According to the legislation sponsored by Honorable Delegate Crotty regarding General Funds (Buffer Beeso) funds must be exhausted from the Veterans Trust Funds account before utilizing General Funds" April 9-12, 2026 The Wall That Heals will be in Surprise Arizona, I ,myself have seen it in person in Washington DC. Bobbie Baldwin, Executive Director made a report summarizing NNVA's work during FY 2025.
