- VII. REPORTS:

RRV Commander / CNVO Representative- Kenny James, attend the CNVO meeting held at Chinle veteran office meeting room. The next CNVO meeting will be in Many Farms, Az. The Chapter Veterans organization wants to allocate to the veterans and eliminate 3 code rules from Window rock, The continuations of Pinon Veterans Center report, the Navajo Warriors Home, and the lack of coordination to pursue the initiative plans. The federal VA office from where they seek the grant cannot establish a firm communication with a DESIGNATED INDIVIDUAL within the Nygren Administrations.

Az. Benefit authority came for review of veteran's disability. And serving veterans spouses has problems getting help from veteran's administration.

The veterans Mobil there are not enough veterans attending for services. The chapter veteran's money is not utilized for a lot of our chapter because of Window rock policy.

The veteran's management are having problems with managers, trust funds divided up, continue updating at the next meeting session.

The housing policy still processes with NTUA having a lot of electricity to work with and the process delays for housing that need to be worked on for veterans housing projects.

Purple heart receipt our not recognized, the wellness center is only for veterans only.

The paper process needs to be updated by veterans at the veteran office due to different box number, ID, SS information.

Comment: Tullie mentions Thanks to our officer's commander, secretary and V Commander for doing a good job.

Herman Tsosie VP- Mention Government system is out of control and changing....This means changes in our world; we need to stay strong and pray. Trump is taking the money from everyone in the country, picking on other country. I watch the news every day.

Wanda Clark Sec.- The updating of your information requested by the Veterans offices.

We have a new budget, the Resolution updated: requested by Chinle veterans Office and Round Rock Chapter. This is why our veteran luncheon dinner; Christmas dinner did not take place. We were busy updating the resolution to be passed at the round rock chapter meeting on 10-15-25.
